Marilyn Corners' President's Report:

Hi Ladies,

Here's hoping you are each saving your quarters to purchase Bingo cards at our next meeting on the 18th. Don't they say "You can't win if you don't play"? So, purchase those cards and Good Luck! Thanks, Nancy, for performing the Bingo Caller duties again. You have become a RMHi tradition and it is a fun night.

Ladies, you still have time to register for SDP's Annual Conference in May. It will be held at Pheasant Run Resort, St. Charles, Illinois (outside of Chicago) May 13 to 18. Go to the SDP web site, www.decorativepainters.org/conference and look at the various wonderful classes offered from 'beginner' to 'advanced' in oil, watercolor, acrylic, colored pencil and mixed media. You can register for one day or the full conference. Just the trade show is worth the trip, which, BTW, several of us are planning to do by TRAIN! Join us!

Be sure to check out the Seminars column in this newsletter. Char and Melinda have lined up the most amazing schedule of teachers and projects for us. This is going to be such a educational year, not to mention, a most interesting and enjoyable one. I am so excited to experience the teachers and learn their new techniques. Good work, seminar chairs.

If you have not recently visited our own web site <http://www.RockyMountainHiArtists.com> (designed and maintained by our own Melinda Barnes), you are missing a fun and enlightening experience. Melinda has our site up-to-date with seminar information, general information with a link to SDP and pictures. Go take a look. You may also take a look at what our sister chapters are doing, by linking on to their web sites. It is so worth a minute of your time.

The Ross-University Hills Library has invited our chapter to again sponsor a Saturday Painting Workshop and Display. The workshop is scheduled for March 23rd, 10 AM to 1 PM, with the display running through the month (and possibly longer). If you have a piece of your artwork you would allow us to display in one of the secure cabinets, please contact me at marilyndenver@aol.com or 303-757-5516 before the end of February. Also, you may feel free to attend the workshop by registering at Ross-University Hills Library, 4310 East Amherst Ave, 720-865-0955. Ask for Susan or Diane.

Happy Valentines Day and Happy Painting.

Hugs,

Marilyn Corners, President

Elissa McAlear - 2nd Vice President/ Membership Chairman*Membership and Art Show: Some News from Vesterheim American Museum*Alberta Murray

The passing of our past president Alberta Murray at 93 years of age was a surprise notice. She was living in Florida with her daughter. Even at age 90, Alberta was driving to take rosemaling classes with her spunky, fun sense of humor. She not only painted for many years, after her retirement she was an active participant in the Senior Olympics winning many gold metals. She was our president in 1981-82 when our membership was approaching 250. She also taught painting at Clements Center in Lakewood. Alberta later moved to near Milwaukee before her Florida move. She occasionally visited when she was in town. I have one of her rosemaled trays.

Sigmund Aarseth

Norwegian Rosemaler Sigmund Aarseth passed away December 12, 2012. He taught the first Rosemaling class at Vesterheim in Decorah Iowa in 1967 followed by a number of other teaching visits. He has published several books on the history of Rosemaling, some translated in English. At one point he was loosing his eyesight which they discovered was being caused by an allergy to linseed oil. He also painted landscapes for a period of time. One whole room at Vesterheim was painted by him. His last book "Norway Painted in Color and Light" is available from Vesterheim.org for $34.95 plus shipping and handling. Museum members may recieve a 10% discount.[I have ordered a copy if you'd like to see it when it arrives.]

Paul and Andy Loftness

If you have ever had a turned wood plate or bowl from Paul Loftness, you will want to treasure it. Paul has been woodturning for 38 consecutive years for Vesterheim. Paul has been working in the field of vision research for over 10 years while he was woodturning in the time available. As of the end of 2012 Paul and his brother Andy have stopped making their turned plates and bowls. Their excellent wood products needed little, if any, sanding before sealing and painting. Their skilled woodturned products will be missed!

Membership: Membership Booklets are being prepared

The Membership Booklets are being prepared for distribution starting at the February meeting. If you have not sent in your dues or have changes to address, phone numbers or email, PLEASE call me by February 12th to avoid having to make changes or corrections later. Thank you for your prompt help with this. Elissa McAlear

Melinda Barnes - Website Manager <http://rockymountainhiartists.com/>

Tole Chatter : I found a blog written by Prismacolor. You will find on this wonderful blog all kinds of colored pencil tutorials and information. <http://blog.prismacolor.com/>. Here is another website with a tutorial on how to sharpen your colored pencils. This website also contains drawing lessons and painting lessons. There are also web pages dedicated to acrylic, watercolor, colored pencils, mixed media, pastel and ink. A wealth of information can be found on this website. <http://www.art-is-fun.com/>. You can find tons of information on the Sakura website. There are several good instruction videos you can watch and learn from. <http://www.sakuraofamerica.com/>. I found the following website in one of my newsletter geared to web designers. Color is color so I feel you might enjoy reading some of the articles on color and how they affect people. <http://inspiredm.com/9-interesting-infographics-about-color/> One of the articles talked about the color blue. Blue represents security, trustworthiness and dependability. Many web designers focus heavily on color schemes when they are working with the graphics or layouts. This is because the way a color is laid out will ultimately affect the impression and overall mood of the viewer. Don't you think colors used in our painting would affect people the same way? Golden Artist Colors has a good website with information about their products. Also has a web page devoted to color called a "Virtual Paint Mixer". <http://www.goldenpaints.com/products/mixer/>. Warning! This next website has nothing to do with painting! Warning! Have you ever wondered what else you can do with those flash drives? I found an article some of you interested in computers will enjoy. "10 Awesome Ways to Use a USB Flash Drive". http://howto.cnet.com/8301-11310\_39-57426513-285/10-awesome-ways-to-use-a-usb-flash-drive/. While I'm on this subject you will discover CNET is a wonderful site with all kinds of information for the computer user. Also tons of free software programs for Windows, Macs, and more. I have used this website since the first day I had a computer in my life. < smile>

Okay, back to painting... We have a new tole shop in Denver! Creative Possibilities is owned by Judy and Ken Sacry. Teaching for Judy are Carrol Mulkey, Monica McClung, Shirley Campbell, and Susie Lindquist. Adult and children's classes will be offered. The location is 7709 W. 92nd Ave., Westminster, CO 80021 and their phone number is 303-420-0127. DecoArt has a line of paint markers. On Pinterest I saw where someone used the DecoArt black paint pen to Zentangle on coffee mugs! Now that looks fun and what a great gift it would make. A new painting magazine is coming! The new magazine is being published by All American Crafts. Linda Heller will be the editor. Linda is the editor of PaintWorks which has always been a top notch painting magazine. Watch Della Wetterman's site for the cover and more info. Della shared a sneak peek of a new pattern packet by Maxine Thomas... it is to die for and I might have to knock the dust off my paint brushes. It is a basket of fruit painted on one of Della's tin butter churns. Hopefully the pattern will be available on Della's site very soon. Mark your calendar for June 2014 now! We are excited to announce RMH is hosting a seminar with Chris Thornton June 21 and 22, 2014. Chris teaches at Las Vegas and occasionally at the SDP show and that is it. Chris is very busy designing for the gift market and many magazine projects. We will be showing you samples of her work in the coming months. Visit Chris' website to learn more about her... <http://christhorntondesigns.com/> Until next month... Melinda

Marilyn asked who will be going to National this May. Elissa looked on line to order the convention book but ended up calling Lisa at National headquarters(number is in the front of the Decorative Painter)the Convention Special is $8.00 and can be downloaded and printed or ordered from National.

There was also discussion regarding the trip to National by train from Denver($189.00, round trip). Char passed out paper and patterns for Paulas class, and said to use pale lines of gray graphite.

Marilyn said the library was so thrilled with the beginner paint in she taught there, that they want to do another one in March and they also want us to do another display of our work. Marilyn is looking for teachers, you pick the project.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 7:20pm,

Respectfully submitted, Secretary, Ginny Sparlin
